WHEREAS, the progressive farmers of South Dakota, thanks to a beneficent soil and a willingness to work, have produced an abundance of quality agriculture products; and

WHEREAS, bakers, food manufacturers, processors and distributors have taken the many great agricultural products of South Dakota and brought them to market ready for consumption; and

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Restaurant Association is pledged to promote these products by giving special recognition to sandwiches during the month of August; and

WHEREAS, the South Dakota newspapers, radio and television stations and other communication media will pay tribute to South Dakota farmers, bakers, food manufacturers, processors, distributors and grocers during August by giving special information and ideas on sandwiches to add to the pleasure and well-being of South Dakota's men, women and children; and

WHEREAS, sandwiches are America's most popular form of food -- healthful, enjoyable and nourishing -- and more than 266 million are eaten everyday:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of August, 1972 as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to take appropriate notice of this special month.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 1st day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.
